

Crosspurpose International UPDATE

A newsletter for our friends and partners

Volume 2, Issue 5
July 2006

A BUSY SPRING SCHEDULE

Crosspurpose International logged over 3,000 miles across 5 states for a total of 9 venues of ministry during the 2006 spring schedule. Local church revival meetings, a tent revival and Southland Bible Institute were all places that Charlie and Paula were privileged to minister to during the months of April and May.

People were saved, revived and encouraged as Charlie preached the Word of God through expository sermons. Paula sang and was a worship leader during various meetings on the busy ministry tour. Her health had improved enough for her to actively participate on the road for this length of time with Charlie for the first time in several years.

After finishing up the month, Charlie flew to Iowa for a meeting at the First Baptist Church, Vinton, Iowa. In June, Charlie and Paula traveled back to Flatwoods, Kentucky for a Student Camp sponsored by Temple Baptist Church. The theme for the week was "A Higher Call...is it in you?" based on Phil. 3:14.

Charlie preached significant messages to the students that dealt with relevant topics such as genuine salvation, resisting temptation, forgiveness, and total commitment. Paula was the worship leader for the meetings each night.

The students were a lively bunch and enjoyed singing many worship songs as well as the theme song especially arranged for their camp.

This was a great time as many participants realized their need of Christ and others made deeper commitments to walk with Him in the coming year.

(more ministry photos on pg. 2)

I press toward the mark for the prize of the high calling of God in Christ
Jesus.
-Phil. 3:14

New Website: www.purpose4u.com

The new web home for Crosspurpose International ministries is www.purpose4u.com.

Along with our new logo and newsletter design, CI has launched a new web site in order to provide a broader format that includes Christian articles, ministry news and other resources. Our new web site is designed to provide online resources, helpful information and up-to-date reporting about CI.

This is a part of our ministry as we continue to develop an online format to strengthen believers and impact the lost for Christ.

There are currently 1.2 billion worldwide users of the Internet causing it to become a virtual mission field.

Check out our new site and drop us an email to let us know that you visited. Notice our change of email addresses. Visit often for fresh info and online resources.

Charlie preaching in tent meeting in Reevesville, SC

Paula worship leading at Student Camp Flatwoods, KY

Contact us at:

Mail

P. O. Box 858
Young Harris, GA 30582

Phone

478-361-8662

E-mail:

contactus@purpose4u.com
charlie@purpose4u.com
paula@purpose4u.com

New web site!
www.purpose4u.com

The purpose for living is found in the way of the cross!

New Web Site Launched!

Crosspurpose International has launched a new web site this month in order to offer a larger variety of Christian articles, ministry news items, and Christian resources.

Find:

- Daily updated devotionals by some of the best Christian authors including Woodrow Kroll and Elizabeth Elliot
- Fresh articles on contemporary and spiritual life issues
- Pastoral & Christian leadership resources including online Bibles in several languages
- Online Store
- Daily current syndicated Christian News from around the world
- CI Ministry News
- Regularly updated ministry schedule
- Check out the "Do You Know" link on the home page that is used for online evangelism
- Send Christian ecards through Crosspurpose International to encourage others

A Busy Spring Schedule (cont')

Here are more ministry photos from our recent spring and summer schedule. Please remember to pray for us as we follow where God leads. We have included below a narrative poem written by an insightful young man who attended the Student Camp in Flatwoods, Kentucky. †

Charlie with high school senior, Dwaine Evans, who wrote the following narrative poem.

Tent meeting in Reevesville, SC

Southland Bible Institute, Kentucky

Crucifixion
By Dwaine Evans

Coming here as a baby
Set forth on a mission waiting for the day of my Crucifixion
All these people mocking, laughing at me
Father forgive them; they know not what they do
Crucify Him, Crucify Him
That's all I hear ringing in my ears
It's almost done
I'm almost there.

Father why
Why did you have to bring me here
For the sins of all the people everywhere
Even the ones standing here
Two men guilty for the crimes they did
But me
Doing nothing but telling the truth
It's almost done
I'm almost there.

Father don't leave me I'm scared
Don't turn Your back
I'm almost there
Mother don't cry, it has to be done
This is my mission
The battle is almost won
Dying for you the gate is opened
You just have to believe in me.

I'll be back in three days
Then I'll go home
To reign with my father upon My throne
And the next time you see Me
I'll be coming back to take My children to the kingdom I built
I'll be coming back to take my children to the kingdom I built
But the ones that don't believe in Me
Hell will be their home
Now it is finished
Now I am done.

Charlie and Pastor Jim and Paula with Beth Pridemore with son, J.D.

Paula and Charlie with some of the students at Student camp Flatwoods, Kentucky.