

CROSSPURPOSE INTERNATIONAL UPDATE

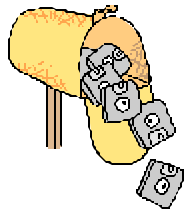

August 1, 2005

Volume 2, Issue 3

 ...camp was awesome this year! Out by the campfire so many people gave their testimony and got saved!! ..I absolutely loved your preaching! I am going to try so hard to not let Satan get into the way of anything! Thanks so much!

 ...God pushed me to where I got saved last night.

 Since I've been at church camp I've learned things can't get better unless you forgive...I got saved and was able to forgive my Dad...I thank you for that.

 Where do I begin? This past week here has been awesome! Thank you for guiding me in the right direction. I can really see a change in my life.

 This week really changed my life. Thank you Bro. Charlie for your testimony and teaching. It's helped me more than you'll ever know.

 I've made a decision that I want to get more serious about the Lord; even concerning the 'small' things...

 I prayed with you and forgave my Dad. The next day, I saw God work in my life. My Dad was there for me like he has never been before...to watch my softball game and he hasn't been to anything of mine or my brother's in 5 years....so many people rededicated and got saved this week...It was such an amazing experience.

 ...camp was really great this year...made me realize all the great things God has given me...

 I have been touched by all of your sermons. I was so touched that I got saved last night at the campfire. Thank you .

 I just want to thank you for all of the messages that you have preached this week...I rededicated myself to the Lord.

 ...you have had such a big impact on my life this past week. ...I was dreading (camp)...I'm not sure my relationship with God would have gotten back on track...

 This week has changed me so much. It all started when you spoke about forgiveness...

SPECIAL

Summer camps, and an overseas missions trip by Anna to South Africa as well as preaching in various church pulpits provided ministry opportunities for Crosspurpose International during the 2005 summer months. Lives were touched and ministries encouraged as we shared the message of Christ. We are blessed to receive many letters and comments from those who have met Christ. A student camp at Camp Asbury Wood in Huntington, West Virginia sponsored by Tri-State Baptist Temple was especially exciting as we saw 15 students come to know Christ personally and share their camp experiences with us. Thank you for your financial and prayer support that makes all our outreaches possible here and abroad!
